ALL SOULS DAY CELEBRATION

November 2nd
Dinner and Celebration at 5:00

Whether we lost them just this year or many years ago, our deceased loved ones hold a treasured place in our hearts. Come celebrate All Souls Day with us to remember and celebrate them.

Bring a picture of your deceased loved one and a dish that they loved. Share a favorite song to include in our playlist for the evening.

Come to share stories, memories, and food, and participate in some meaningful activities to honor our loved ones' memories.

Register for this event
on the parish website.

November 6th
All Souls Service at 6:30

If your loved one has passed away this year, join us for our traditional All Souls Evening Prayer in Church on Wednesday evening.
